Gillette Spokesman Denies Rumors Says Employee Cutbacks Finished

By Frank Messina

Contradicting earlier media reports that Gillette was not ruling out closing their Andover factory, a company spokesman yesterday flatly denied the existence of any plans to shut down the local facility.

"No, there are no plans to close the Andover plant. There are no plans for a massive manufacturing layoff," said Richard Gauthier, manager of corporate communications. "Can I be more succinct?"

Gillette has recently finished a 2,400-worker layoff, and company officials have been quoted as saying more plant closures are in the future.

Gauthier denied more shutdowns would take place. The recent layoffs were a reaction to a 1986 takeover bid by Revlon, he said, adding that all major employee cutbacks are complete.

The Gillette spokesman described the Andover factory, which employs 700 workers, as "a critical facility. This is where we manufacture our personal products (Dry Idea deodorant, White Rain shampoo), a line we're banking on a lot."

Town Manager Ken Mahony indicated he wasn't losing sleep over the possibility of losing Gillette from the tax rolls.

"If we worried about it every time a company sneezed, we'd be in a constant state of shock," Mahony said. The town manager also said he doubted that a large percentage of Andover residents work at the plant.

Located on a large plot of land at 30 Burr Road, Mahony said Gillette officials have told him the Andover plant was considered the "crown jewel" in the company's chain of factories.

"For that reason, I'm not terribly concerned" about the possibility of an Andover closure, Mahony said.

The unusual specter of a successful, international corporation being forced to put itself on the auction block by dissatisfied shareholders has focused the attention of the financial world towards Andover where stockholders will vote to send Gillette in one of two possible directions.

• The Coniston Group—a coalition of proxy voters leading the fight against Gillette management—is attempting to gather enough support to elect four Coniston candidates to the board of directors.

If successful, the new board majority would vote to sell Gillette to an outside party, a move the group says would mean large, immediate profits for stockholders.

• Gillette management, citing profit increases and a steady rise in stock value, wants to maintain status quo.

Coniston representatives claim they will have enough votes to elect their candidates.

Institutional shareholders, who are typically multi-member pension funds, with investments of more than a million shares, form the backbone of the anti-management position, Coniston officials say.

Some estimates place Coniston support at 6.76 million shares.

Dance The Week Away

Put on your dancing shoes; it's almost National Dance Week.

Next week is Dance Week, and Andover will be doing most of its celebrating Saturday, April 30. From 1 to 3 p.m., a free movement workshop called "The Marvelous Body" for non-dancers and dancers alike will focus on exercise, stress reduction and movement awareness. Health and exercise specialist Dawn De Vito will teach safe exercise techniques, body work for improved personal performance and stress reduction, as well as creative movement for effective communication and expression. It will be held in the West Elementary School auditorium.

At 7 that night, a dance concert with Le Studio de Ballet, Choreo and Becky Arnold and Dancers will go on in the West auditorium. Mary MacKenzie, company member of Ballet Theater of Boston, will dance "The Dying Swan," and Choreo will perform Arnold's "Dancing with Fats," a suite of lively, entertaining dances set to the music of Fats Waller. Also on the program will be a preview performance of Arnold's "Ancient Rites."

All week, Le Studio de Ballet, 2 Dundee Park, will be conducting an open studio, and dance programs will be aired on Heritage Cablevision Channel 11 (see story, page 5).

Arnold, Andover teacher and choreographer, founded The Arnold Dance Foundation in 1980 to support and promote dance in the community. ADF sponsors Dance Week each year and has produced dance performance, education programs in local schools, lectures, film programs and dance for television.

"Put On Your Dancing Shoes!" is supported by the Massachusetts Arts Lottery, Gould Inc., Digital Equipment Corp., Andover Bank, Ruth Waldman and ADF is partially funded by the state Council on Arts and Humanities.

Boston's Choreo Dance Company in Becky Arnold's "Dancing with Fats," which goes on the West Elementary auditorium stage Saturday, April 30 at 7 p.m.

Parents Advisory Council To Meet

The Andover High School Parents Advisory Council will meet

Wednesday, April 27, at 7 p.m. in the high school library annex.

Student activities for next year's four-year high school will be discussed. All interested parents, students and faculty are invited to attend.

Town Sponsors Spring Cleaning

The Andover Conservation Commission, in conjunction with the townwide spring cleanup week, is sponsoring a one-day conservation land cleanup Saturday, April 30. Conservation overseers have been invited to coordinate neighborhood conservation land cleanup efforts. Volunteers are needed to walk conservation lands and pick up refuse in a fill-a-bag program. A limited number of plastic trash bags and disposable gloves are available through the overseers. Interested citizens are invited to call the conservation officer to learn the nearest Andover conservation land and the name of its overseer.

Committee To Hold Hearing On Plan

The School Committee is sponsoring a public hearing to discuss the master plan Tuesday, April 26, at 7:30 p.m. at Doherty Junior High School Cafeteria.

The master plan, which was presented at Town Meeting, is a five-year guideline which considers curriculum, equipment and building needs.

Everyone is welcome to attend the hearing.

Registries Stay Open Thursdays

The following Registry of Motor Vehicles offices are open until 7 p.m. on Thursdays: Boston,

Beverly, Brockton, Fitchburg, Framingham, Hyannis, Lawrence, New Bedford, North Attleboro, Norwood, Pittsfield, Quincy, Springfield, Watertown, Woburn and Worcester.

Normal office hours are 8:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays. All services except suspension hearings, road tests and learner's permit examinations are available Thursday evenings.

SHED Starts Waiting List

The Shawsheen Extended Day Program held its 1988-89 registration last week at Shawsheen School. As a result of the many people who registered, SHED is full. Because no SHED slot scheduling can be finalized until the kindergarten sessions are determined, SHED will continue to accept names to be placed on a waiting list. For further information, call Sydney Bialo at the Andover Schools office.

Walkers Help March Of Dimes

Sunday, April 24 is quickly approaching and that means that the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation WalkAmerica is just around the corner.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. at the South Common in Lawrence. The 20-kilometer walk begins at 9 a.m., rain or shine.

Five checkpoints along the route will provide a break for refreshments. There will be a celebration at the finish line with food, drink, a disc jockey and door prizes donated by local businesses.

The money raised goes to fund research and education on birth defects. A child with a birth defect is born every two minutes. Locally, efforts are concentrated on preventing low birth weight and infant mortality.

For more information on how to help the March of Dimes take steps against birth defects, contact the local office at 89 North Main St.

Drug Program Leader Named

William L. Paterson of Dewey Street in North Andover has been named the northeast regional field coordinator for the Governor's Alliance Against Drugs. Paterson, formerly the director of prevention and employee assistance services at Lowell General Hospital, will coordinate alliance grants and programs in the 71 cities and towns of Middlesex, Essex and Suffolk counties which make up the northeast region.

He has worked in the health services field since 1976. Paterson received his bachelor of science degree from Northeastern University and his master's in education from Antioch University, Ohio, with continuing education at the Family Institute of Missouri and Harvard Medical School. He is a member of the faculty of Merrimack College, division of continuing education, and has served as a senior counselor at Middlesex Hospital in Waltham, later establishing a comprehensive primary prevention office for the Belmont Health Department.

"Mr. Paterson will work very closely with area schools, law enforcement officials, community groups, private companies and the media to insure that the governor's goal of drug-free schools by 1990 becomes a reality," said Tom Cullen, executive director of the Governor's Alliance Against Drugs.

Get 'Charged Up' At The Library

The staff of Memorial Hall Library is "charged up" for National Library Week, April 17-23. This annual event has "Charge up at the Library" as its theme. Along with some electrical novelties, the library will dispense charged-up balloons and free refreshments.

Guided tours will be given each day at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. A mini-booksale will be held at the Ballardvale Branch Friday, April 22, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, April 23, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and at the main library Saturday, April 23, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. All proceeds are used by the Friends of the Library to provide some of the "extras" that make Memorial Hall Library special.

It will be a fun week—with video specials and "bear" events in the Children's Room—so be sure to stop by and join the celebration.

Friends Of Library To See Play In Lowell

The Friends of Memorial Hall Library are sponsoring a trip to the Merrimack Repertory Theatre in Lowell to see Bertha, the Sewing Machine Girl Sunday, May 1.

The new musical, winner of the Seagrams Musical Theatre competition, tells the story of a hard-working factory girl who seems, through no fault of her own, to get into all sorts of interesting situations. Bertha takes a skeptical look at the melodrama and music halls of the turn of the century.

A bus, provided by the Friends of the Library, will leave the library parking lot at 1:15 p.m. For further information or to register, contact the circulation desk at Memorial Hall Library by April 25.

Celebrating 'Libeary' Week

Memorial Hall Library is a busy place this week with its National "Libeary" Week Specials for children.

Vinnie Gaglione, beekeeper and library staff member, will demonstrate with live bees the fascinating story of how honey is made, what's inside a hive and how bees communicate. The program does not require registration and is for kids in grades three through six. It lasts from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

1991	0	0	1500	1500

*Sample $15,000 loan at 10% annual percentage rate; chart refers to deductibility of interest. Actual rates may vary.

As of 1988, interest on an Andover Bank Equity Creditline up to $100,000 is fully tax deductible and the money may be used for any purchase or expense. For homeowners, that's the biggest news since the 1986 Tax Reform Act itself, because your Andover Bank Equity Creditline can be used for major purchases like a new car, college education, a dream vacation, or for unforeseen medical expenses—anything you wish. Most important of all, interest payments are fully deductible.

The chart above shows how a hypothetical consumer loan of $15,000 at an annual percentage rate (APR) of 10% will eventually generate no tax deduction at all. The same amount at the same 10% APR applied to an Andover Bank Equity Creditline may lower your taxable income by $1500 each year as long as you meet IRS requirements. Actual APR may vary.

Our Andover Bank Equity Creditline requires no application fees or legal fees. We offer payment plans to fit your needs and charge no prepayment penalty. For more information, call or visit one of our eight convenient Merrimack Valley offices soon. We think you'll agree that for major purchases, an Andover Bank Equity Creditline is the only smart way to borrow.

BABY TALK

by Jack Resnick

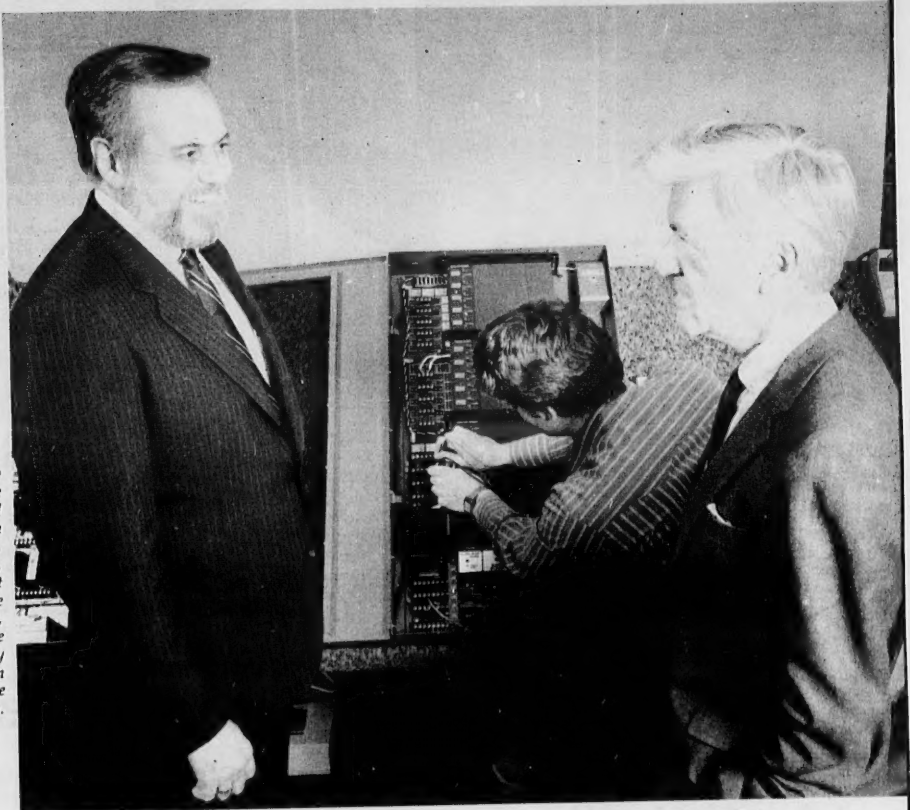

The standard stroller, with rigid frame and canopy top, is wonderful for taking your baby on long walks. One with an adjustable back will be the most useful. For the younger baby, lower the back so he/she can lie down; the 3-to-6-month-old can sit in a semi-reclining position; for the older baby, who can sit well alone, raise the back to the regular sitting position. An umbrella type stroller, because of lightness, is good to maneuver in crowded places. It's easy to fold up and carry with you. The umbrella type can be used from about 3 months on, since it "cradles" the baby in a semi-sitting position.

There is a complete assortment of baby needs available at TINY TOTLAND. We feature famous makers including Simmons, Childcraft and Bassett. Over 80 cribs are on display. Ask about our lay-a-way plan, no extra charge. We feature wall decorations and many accessories. Babies toys...everything from "heaven to seven". Open 9-5:30. Mon. & Th. 9-9. # IF YOU'RE A BUSINESS IN SEARCH OF A BANK...

"Arlington Trust Company runs their business like we run ours ... they treat each customer as an individual."

President Wayne Moore, Mass Fire Alarms of New England (l), explains the sophisticated Fire Vac III Voice Evacuation System to G. Michael Demaras, Regional Vice President, Arlington Trust Company (r). Mass Fire Alarms' service manager, Brian Flanders, tests the control panel of the fully automatic combination fire alarm/voice communication system.

When Wayne Moore, president of Mass Fire Alarms of New England, travels around the country giving seminars and serving on the fire code committees, it's important to him to be able to pick up the phone, explain what he needs, and know it will be taken care of. Even when it comes to banking.

"I know I can do that with Arlington Trust Company because Mike Demaras, Regional Vice President, has taken the time to get to know me and understand my business," he said. "Arlington Trust Company runs their business like we run ours ... they treat each customer as an individual. I don't want to be just a number when I've got my whole life riding on it. That's why we've been with Arlington Trust for over ten years."

Arlington Trust Company has been giving personal service to businesses since we opened our first office in Lawrence nearly 100 years ago. If you're a business in search of a bank, come to Arlington Trust Company.

Household Hazardous Waste Collection Day Coming Up

Saturday, April 30 marks the second annual program on a regional basis to address a significant health and safety problem for the towns of Andover and North Andover. The problem is one that many residents are not even aware of — the improper disposal of household hazardous wastes.

"Pouring cleaning solvents down the drain, putting oil-based paints out for regular trash collection or dumping spent motor oil in woods or wetlands endangers public health," said Everett Penney, Jr., Andover health director.

"Additionally, improper storage of these materials leads to a serious safety problem for not only homeowners, but fire-fighting personnel," added North Andover Fire Chief William Dolan.

From 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., a licensed chemist from a hazardous waste disposal firm will be at Merrimack College to evaluate and dispose of your small quantities of household materials free of charge. Each citizen may bring up to five pounds or five gallons of materials such as pesticides, oil paints, motor oil, solvents, strippers, furniture polish, photographic chemicals and many more to the disposal site.

Some items, such as ammunition, explosives and batteries, cannot be accommodated. Aerosol cans, which could not be accepted last year, will be accepted.

Complete information on the program and brochures describing what constitutes household hazardous waste may be obtained by calling the Andover Health Department or the North Andover Fire Department. These brochures are being provided free of charge by the League of Women Voters of the two towns and Andover Recycling Inc.

Puerto Rico's coqui frog is less than two inches long but has a call that can reach 108 decibels, louder than a low-flying jet or subway train.

Andover and North Andover officials examine a site for the annual household hazardous waste collection. From left, LeeAnn Merashoff of Northeast Solvents Services; Chief of security at Merrimack College John Kiley; North Andover Fire Chief William Dolan; and Andover Public Health Director Everett Penney, Jr. This is the second year the two towns have done a dual collection.

AT OUR SCHOOLS

THE TOWNSMAN, APRIL 21, 1988

Three fifth-graders introduced the program, Earth Tunes, and talked about the environment. From left to right are Jaclyn Escott, Lani Beth Radack and Jillian Lewis.

by Matthew Sapienza

Celebrating the environment was the theme of Earth Tunes. Fifth-graders acted out skits to go along with the songs. From left to right are Becca Gordon, Marlo Michaels and Anthony Correnti dressed as flowers and Jamie Klein dressed as a tree. Everyone was singing the finale, "Everybody needs a hug."

Students Tune Into Environment

By Julie M. Barry

Earth Tunes, a program designed to celebrate the environment, took advantage of the talents of fifth-grade students at South Elementary School to relay the importance of respecting the environment.

The students sang, danced and acted out skits relating to the environment at the all-school assembly last Friday.

"Every person makes a difference. There is something you can do for the environment." Teaching this to the students is the goal of the program, according to Barbara Herson, coordinator of Earth Tunes.

Herson said she worked with the students all week, teaching them about such things as water pollution and resource recovery. After discussing a topic, she said she taught them a related song. "It sort of reinforces the message," Herson said.

Fifth-graders geared up in sunglasses to perform the "Recycling Rap"; they used homemade instruments made from garbage to accompany a song about pollution; and they used an array of props to make their presentation about the Hudson River cleanup.

Students in the fifth grade at South School used instruments made from garbage to accompany their song about pollution.

Highlights of this weekend's 75th open house at Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute include the standard flower show, staged by members of the Massachusetts Garden Club Federation, and floral exhibits by students in the horticulture program. Gaynell Hill of Andover will be among students demonstrating various uses of plant materials. All events are free and open to the public. See story, next page.

Pike School Math Whizzes Honored

Five seventh-graders of The Pike School have been cited by the New England Math League for their achievements in the league's annual contest.

High scorer on the Pike team was Stephen Bronstein of Windham, N.H., who earned 34 of a possible 40 points, the fourth highest score of any seventh-grader in Essex County. Just behind him were classmates John Kristensen of North Andover with 33 points, Cemil Erdem of Andover with 32 points, Eric Edholm of Andover with 31 points and Edward Gesing of Andover with 31 points.

The combined performance of these students gave Pike the second highest seventh-grade score of schools participating from Essex County.

Peer Counselors Help Classmates Stay Out Of Trouble

By Jen Chunias

At Andover High School we all know where we are sent when we get in trouble, but where can students go to get help so it won't happen again. The student advisory board is a 'peer counseling' group designed to help students realize what rules they have broken before it's too late. Member Kim Wilkinson, a senior, says,

"Students are often unaware, so we try to inform them of what their choices are."

Formerly called the discipline advisory board, the group has changed their name because, according to Brian Worcestor, a senior, "Discipline sounded too harsh."

If a student comes before the board, fellow students explain what they have done and make up a contract that should keep them out of trouble in the future. The contract needs Assistant Principle Tim Thomas' approval, but it is the student's final decision to sign it or not.

Worcestor says, "Under our new name, we want to emphasize students for students."

Whether it involves peer counseling, a student contract or a change in schedule, the student advisory board is a group of students volunteering to help their peers in whatever way they can.

"We want to help every student realize what their problem is and make life easier for them" said senior Barbara Sheehan.

Brush Burning

May 1 is the last day of the year open burning of brush is allowed in Massachusetts, according to Bruce K. Maillet, director of air quality at the Department of Environmental Quality Engineering.

In order to burn brush a permit is necessary from local fire departments. Brush includes cane, driftwood and forestry debris. No grass, hay or leaves may be burned, although these materials make excellent mulch.

Students Prepare For State Fair

More than 200 students from public, private and parochial schools throughout Massachusetts will exhibit original science projects based on topics ranging from astronomy and biology to the behavioral sciences and computers during the 39th annual Massachusetts State Science Fair Saturday, April 30, at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Athletic Facility in Cambridge from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The fair is sponsored by The Boston Globe, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the Massachusetts State Science Fair Inc. to encourage and provide recognition for tomorrow's scientists.

To participate, students must either compete in and win one of the six regional fairs held across the state during March and early April or be selected as their school's representative. Projects must develop a central theme and answer a specific scientific question.

The projects are judged by a panel of professionals from science, business and industry and teachers from local schools and colleges who will award scholarships and prizes totaling more than $30,000.

Tickets are available in advance at the student dining room and will be available at the door.

Club Coca Cola USA will benefit Special Olympics. Receipts from the sale of concessions benefits the student activities fund and the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

Special Olympics, the world's largest program of year-round sports training and competition for children and adults with mental retardation, celebrates its 20th anniversary in 1988.

Billed as the world's greatest touring music-video dance club, Club Coca Cola features a selection of music-videos as performed by today's hottest artists, music legends and rising rock groups, including the Police, Genesis, Run DMC, Whitney Houston, Bon Jovi, U2, Aretha Franklin, The Cult, Amazulu, Duran Duran, Billy Idol and The Art of Noise.

The fast-paced evening also includes special video appearances by international television celebrity Max Headroom.

A 150-square-foot screen captures all the music-video action while special effects, including a super strobe and other high-tech lighting designs, surround Club Coca Cola party-goers with fantasy of sight and sound. The concert sound system is provided by Panasonic/Ramsa.

The tour, launched in early October, is the country's largest touring dance club and Coca-Cola USA officials estimate more than 125,000 students at 100 campuses along the Atlantic coast and in the midwest, plus military personnel, their families and friends at selected U.S. bases, will have packed the club before the end of the year.

PAC Plans Year End

Members of the Doherty Parents Advisory Council Board met last week to discuss plans for end-of-the-year activities and to review the success of recent programs. President Kathy Lane reported on the outstanding response to last month's Teacher Appreciation Day. The Doherty PAC provided a luncheon buffet and redecorated the Teachers' Room. Committee member Irene Blank produced thank-you notes from grateful staff members.

Lane also pointed out that the eighth-grade candy sale had been a great success, noting that parent volunteers helped in tabulating the sales forms.

Housemaster Kathy Blain and Principal Richard McGrail detailed plans for the Doherty open house Thursday, May 19. The activities begin at 5:30 p.m. and include an indoor buffet. Invitations will be extended to fifth- and sixth-graders and their parents as well as to the seventh-, eighth- and ninth-graders.

Blain also spoke about an upcoming International Awareness Week sponsored by the seventh-grade social studies department. The week will feature talks by foreign-born parents and grandparents of Doherty students and many other special presentations.

Following the treasurer's report by Linda Ciccone, McGrail listed some of the scheduled year-end activities. Eighth-graders will have a dance Friday, June 17, and ninth-graders will have a dance Tuesday, June 21. Each class will have a year-end trip; ninth-graders will head for Salisbury Beach; eighth-grade goes to Water Country; seventh-grade visits Canobie Lake.

Raytheon Earnings Up 11.4 Percent In Quarter

Raytheon Co. reported an 11.4 percent increase in earnings and a 22.6 percent increase in earnings per share on a sales increase of 11.3 percent in the first quarter of 1988 compared with the same period last year.

Earnings for the quarter were $113.3 million, or $1.68 per share, and sales were $1.949 billion. In the first quarter of 1987, the company earned $101.8 million, or $1.37 per share, on sales of $1.750 billion.

"All of Raytheon's business segments contributed to our company's profits in the first quarter," said Chairman Thomas L. Phillips. "Beech and energy services were much improved, reflecting both successful market strategies and cost reductions. This turnaround has made a significant difference to the bottom line."

Overall earnings benefited from higher sales and operating income as well as lower taxes. Earnings per share were further augmented by fewer outstanding shares.

Total backlog at the end of the quarter was a record $8.601 billion, including funded U.S. government orders of $6.313 billion. Total backlog at the end of last year's first quarter was $7.520 billion, including a government backlog of $5.206 billion.

All segments recorded increased quarterly sales compared with the first quarter a year ago except energy services, which experienced a minor reduction due to lower "pass-through" sales of materials and craft labor.

Beech Aircraft's profitability throughout the quarter resulted from strong sales growth in both commercial and government aircraft products and benefits of cost reductions instituted in 1987. "Our aviation subsidiary has built a solid commuter business with its Beech 1900 turboprop airliner and that has helped us this year," Phillips said.

Energy services, led by United Engineers & Constructors, was also profitable, continuing an overall comeback performance that has benefited from a more diversified industry services base.

Electronics, led by defense electronics systems, continued to be the largest contributor to sales and profits.

Other lines continued to make progress in both sales and operating performance.

Sales in major appliances were up over those in the first quarter of last year, but operating performance did not follow suit due to start-up costs on recently introduced new models.

Earnings per share are based on the average number of shares outstanding

He was also responsible for planning and implementing the Federal Communications Commission's Computer Inquiry II Order permitting NYNEX to enter the customer premises equipment and computer markets.

A 1965 graduate of Merrimack, Santagati holds a master's degree from M.I.T.'s Sloan School of Management. He taught the "Process of Management" course at Merrimack. Sankar is a member of the National Honor Society, the Math Club, the Science Team and the Gymnastics Team. He is also an Eagle Scout.

Sankar received the Harold R. Rafton Award for conservation. He is a member of Green Peace, the Cousteau Society and Earth First.

Boston Ballet Announces Season

Artistic Director Bruce Marks announced Boston Ballet's 25th Silver Anniversary season, celebrating the company's history and paying tribute to founder E. Virginia Williams.

The works of two great choreographic masters, Maurice Bejart and Sir Frederick Ashton, will be performed and two of the most exciting choreographers in the dance world today, James Kudelka and William Forsythe, will add their innovative style to the company's repertory.

An expanded performance season will result in all repertory programs being performed for two weeks. There will be six more performances of the full-length company classic and holiday favorite The Nutcracker. Boston Ballet will increase the total number of performances by 15.

All performances will be at The Wang Center for the Performing Arts in Boston. August Bournonville's romantic work La Sylphide, staged by Dinna Bjorn of the Royal Danish Ballet, will open the season. The role of Old Madge, the witch, will be performed by the world's greatest dance mime, Niels Bjorn Larsen.

Set in the rugged highlands of 19th-century Scotland, La Sylphide is a timeless romantic fairytale of a bridegroom haunted by the beauty and intrigue of a mysterious sylph.

This first ballet of the Romantic Era was originally choreographed by Philippe Taglione in 1832 and set to the music of Jean Schneitzhoeffer. Bournonville's La Sylphide was presented in Denmark in 1836. Lucile Grahn danced the lead role in the first performance of this version, which has been in the active repertory of the Royal Danish Ballet ever since.

Boston Ballet will stage 43 performances of The Nutcracker, including four special school matinees.

With a full orchestra and more than 100 performers, including members of Boston Ballet and children ages 7-14 from the Boston metropolitan area, the production features an on-stage snowfall, a giant magical Christmas tree and an enormous hot-air balloon which transports Clara to the Place of Sweets.

More than 50,000 people attended Boston Ballet's The Nutcracker in 1987, making it the most popular production in the world.

The earthy, vital atmosphere of the Spanish seaport city of Barcelona sets the stage for Rudolf Nureyev's staging of Don Quixote. Fishermen, matadors and courtisans mingle while tangos, fandangos

Essex Chorus To Perform

The 25-voice Essex County Chamber Chorus, with orchestra accompaniment, will perform Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise and selections from Bach's Jesu, meine Freude Motet Sunday, April 24, at 4 p.m. in Sidon Hall, The United Presbyterian Church, 96 East Haverhill St., Lawrence. The choir is under the direction of Margo Warner with Joseph Balsamo as pianist. Part of the proceeds will benefit the First Calvary Baptist Church Rebuilding Fund.

Warner headed Abbot Academy's music department for nine years and has taught a music appreciation course for the Council on Aging in Merrimack.

She studied voice in Boston, New York and in Paris with Hilda Roosevelt.

Warner gave yearly solo recitals in Boston and made appearances throughout New England, at Yale University and Carnegie Recital Hall in New York.

She served as president of the Boston

Chapter for National Association of Teachers of Singing for two terms and coached with Fritz Lehman, brother of Lotte Lehman.

The Essex County Chorus, formed about seven years ago, was an offshoot of the Lawrence Savoyards, a group which performed Gilbert and Sullivan operettas for 11 years.

This performance will be funded in part by a grant from the Lawrence Arts Lottery Council.

Bicycle Safety

Registrar Robert M. Hutchinson, Jr. reminds bicyclists to use caution, reminding them to ride on the right side of the road with the flow of traffic, single file, signaling by hand for turns and stopping at all stop signs and traffic lights.

Other bike safety tips: give the right of way to pedestrians; never ride "double;" check brakes often; equip bike with front and rear fenders, pedal reflectors and reflective material on both sides; do not ride on express or limited access highways.

Actors To Get Spotlight

Local residents will perform in the Colonial Chorus Players' production of Broadway's smash hit 42nd Street. A musical with-in a musical, 42nd Street chronicles the comeback of the once-successful Broadway director Julian Marsh, the attempt of an aging star, Dorothy Brock, to remain in the limelight and the chance for a young chorus girl to get her first big break.

Frank Kaplan of Wintergreen Circle will portray Pat Denning, Brock's true love interest. New to Colonial, Kaplan has played such diverse parts as Pish Tush in The Mikado, Oscar in Sweet Charity, Larry in Company and Teen Angel in Grease.

Alice Pascucci of Island Way, with dance experience in Pippin, Annie and Chicago, to name a few, will be a featured dancer. Performances are Friday and Saturday, April 22, 23, 29 and 30, at 8:15 p.m. at the Joshua Eaton School, Summer Avenue, Reading.

Andover Resident Featured In Home Show

Valli Swerdlow of Wolcott Avenue will be featured at the 1988 Suburban Home and Garden Show April 28-May 1 at the Northeast Trade Center. Swerdlow is the author of Dress Your House for Success and creator of "Strategic Home Enhancement," a method for getting the most value from home improvement dollars while increasing homes' ultimate resale value.

Swerdlow will be joined by Bob Thomson, host of WGBH's The Victory Garden and Norm Abram of This Old House.

A special real estate showcase highlights banking, mortgage and residential developments. Visitors can tour a fully furnished, landscaped model home by Westville Homes of Plaistow, N.H. The 1,352-square-foot, split-entry "Brentwood" features three bedrooms, living room, dining room and fully-equipped modern kitchen and bath.

Thomson, author of The New Victory Garden and star of the new Victory Garden Video, will answer homeowners' questions and provide gardening tips on Thursday, April 28.

Co-chairmen of the event are Corinne Kaufman of Andover and Rosann Ritter of North Andover. Committee members are Sue Redgate, Barbara Liss, Dorothy Shaker, Maureen Barenboim, Mary Ann D'Angelo and Theresa Russo, all of Andover, and Nila Proko of Salem, N.H.

Abram, master carpenter and one of the country's leading experts on home restoration, will offer guidance to do-it-yourself remodelers on everything from demolition to finishing on Saturday, April 30.

Handsprings

harps, wood accessories, dried flowers, baskets and pottery items will be offered in booths from Vermont to Connecticut. Pictures of appliqued wood, oils, watercolors and prints of birds and flowers will abound as will silk flowers or the etched glass of Robert Cory of Methuen or the cut and pierced lamps of Barbara Gugger of Reading.

PA biology teacher Marc Kookan is a mastr birdhouse maker, whose work is also shown at Audubon shops. Another birdhouse maker specializes in hinged-pole birdfeeders for easy filling.

PA's Judy Hamilton is the crafter of stuffed animals whose long arms hang around the neck, and hand puppets, her newer creations. She has been the co-organizer of Handsprings for the past five years with Jenny Cline of the academy. The craft show, sponsored by the Ladies Benevolent Society at Phillips (women faculty, staff and wives) is the work of these campus women, husbands and colleagues. Hamilton is one of many exhibitors showing toys for children—carved wooden toys, teddy bears.

Mary Steele of Main Street makes hand-painted totes and aprons. Sterling and gold jewelry are always shown at Handsprings, but so are ceramic jewelry and beads and earrings of glass, wood and silk.

There are hand-painted T-shirts and sweats and other sporty clothes as well as Victorian lace. Midge Brecher, modern dance teacher at PA, will knit you a sweater if she doesn't have one your size or style. Heather Bevilacqua of North Andover will offer knitted items for children.

David Amundsen of North Andover brings the products of his bee hives and Ben Strohecker brings Harbor Sweets from Marblehead.

The main luncheon fare will be the offerings of two catering firms. The Best of Thymes is a partnership of two Andover women who wanted a business but didn't want to leave their children. Janice Fontanella and Marsha Cohen aim to set up a gourmet take-out shop once they have built a constituency for their catering. One of their specialties on Sunday will be a basil/ricotta/tomato tart. Absolutely Perfect, run by Danielle Connolly of Morningside Lane, North Andover, will serve crunchy turkey salad, pasta primavera and jambalaya. The Andover Community Child Care Center will operate the beverage concession.

Proceeds will benefit the Family Health Center of Greater Lawrence for a media resource center for patients and doctors, the Lawrence Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention and Parenting Coalition, to help provide salaries to staff school-based health services, and Neighbors in Need, to help fund the new foster care program at Maria's House.

The state of Nebraska is 97 percent farmland.

Bread And Roses Benefit

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover, 6 Locke St., is holding a benefit concert for Bread and Roses Friday, April 29, at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Ferris Gluck, a student at the New England Conservatory and the church's director of music, has enlisted the talents of seven of her classmates after hearing of the need for low-cost housing in the Greater Lawrence area and the ongoing need of feeding the hungry, many of whom are street people.

The concert will feature the works of Chopin, Bruch, Schubert, Beethoven and Quantz. Performing are Todd Theriault, Ferris Gluck, Christine Dore and Sara Takagi, piano; Clayton March, clarinet; Leslie deLaine, viola; Tony Arnone, cello; and Christine Faub, flute.

Refreshments will be served. The church's outreach committee is sponsoring the program.

Churches To Observe Peace Day Sunday

Area churches are responding to the appeal by the North Andover People for Peace to observe Peace Day Sunday, April 24. Churches and synagogues will find ways through sermons and homilies, music, forums and church school and youth group activities to celebrate the cause of peace.

The enthusiasm to celebrate Peace Day began in North Andover churches two years ago. This year the North Andover People for Peace included Greater Lawrence churches in its letter inviting participation.

Past activities in participating churches included the selection of appropriate hymns and anthems, sermons with a peace theme, the reading of Mark Twain's "The War Prayer," the releasing of balloons with peace messages, bulletin boards with peace-related articles and events highlighted and prayers for peace.

Israel Independence Day

Temple Emanuel of Andover will celebrate Israel Independence Day at the Friday evening service April 22 at 8:15 p.m. This day recognizes the 40th anniversary of the establishment of the state of Israel created in 1948.

An Oneg Shabbat social hour will follow the service. All are invited. The service is sponsored by the Synagogue Council of Massachusetts and Boston's Jewish Young Adult Center in cooperation with the combined Jewish philanthropies of Greater Boston.

West Parish To Bring Choir

Cornell will confirm Christopher Battles, Craig Milligan, Julia Worcester, Leanna Mills, Jennifer Romig, Daniel Ely, Timothy Fox, Leigh Ann Catanzaro and Anita Culver.

The confirmands, their families and sponsors will gather in Shaw Hall for a breakfast at 9 a.m. A reception in their honor will follow the service. The congregation will be invited to renew their vow of Baptism during the service.

U.U.S.C. Sunday

The Unitarian-Universalist Church, 6 Locke St., Andover, will celebrate U.U.S.C. Sunday at its 10:30 a.m. worship service Sunday, April 24.

The U.U. Service Committee is an independent organization dedicated to self-help and development projects in the United States and overseas. It began in response to refugee problems in Europe after World War II.

Jeannette Debbs of the U.U.S.C., who has recently accompanied other Unitarians in a comprehensive tour of Nicaragua, will be the speaker.

Doherty To Set Up Drug Program Next Year

By Julie M. Barry

Gaining the attention of 550 junior high students is no easy feat, but Bill Meehan made it seem second nature.

He spoke to Doherty Junior High School students for 45 minutes Thursday, April 14 about alcohol and drug abuse.

Meehan is the executive director of Take Charge, a drug and alcohol prevention program geared specifically toward middle school students. It will be implemented next year at Doherty.

It's important to talk to children in junior high, according to Meehan, because the average starting age for drinking is 12.

He rattled off statistics and directed them toward the students. He said 50 people in the audience are being abused by alcohol, and 150, who don't drink, are abused by problem drinkers around them.

"We have a very real problem and you better realize it," Meehan said.

He explained that alcoholism, if left untreated, is a fatal disease, and he informed students about Alcoholics Anonymous and Alateen.

After telling true, shocking stories about alcohol-related incidents, Meehan explained that there were three problems related to alcohol abuse.

Peer pressure, the willingness to take risks and communication with parents are all factors that influence the decision to drink, Meehan said.

Meehan's sincerity and attention-grabbing antics maintained the interest of the students, and his speech provoked a big round of applause.

Meehan's visit didn't end with his speech. He conducted a workshop for about 30 seventh-graders to introduce

Educators Learn From One Another In Program

The Songkran Water Festival celebrating the Thai new year was celebrated in Andover Wednesday, April 13, bringing to an end a unique educational and cultural exchange sponsored by the Andover and North Andover American Field Service chapters.

The Songkran Water Festival was part of the farewell dinner held the night before a delegation of Thai educators departed for home. The Thais prepared the dinner of native Thailand dishes as a way of thanking the local AFS chapter and their host families. Although not planned, the farewell dinner fell on the same night as the Thai new year, making the dinner a double celebration.

The water festival pays homage to the elders of the community on the new year. Water was placed in the hands of Don and Jan Sagaser of Chestnut Street and then to all the families who opened their homes to the Thais. A white ribbon was then tied to their wrists as a symbol of good luck for the coming year. The Sagasers traveled to Thailand in 1986 on an AFS volunteer exchange and were instrumental in bringing this delegation of educators to the United States. They have been active in AFS for 25 years, and Mrs. Sagaser is an area representative supporting the local chapters.

For three weeks, 16 school administrators from Thailand lived

Science Works

By Julie M. Barry

The zapping of static electricity, the oozing of a volcano and the sizzling sound and bright flames of burning oxygen—all were attractions at West Junior High School's "Science Works" last Thursday night.

Parents and friends had the opportunity to learn about what goes on inside the classroom.

Seventh-, eighth- and ninth-grade students explained projects and demonstrated experiments they had conducted in class.

Observers moved in and out of five rooms filled with scientific knowledge.

It was possible to learn about the earth sciences—astronomy, meteorology, oceanography and geology from the seventh-graders. Laverne Gray, seventh-grade science teacher, said the students spent about a week researching and writing a report and another five to six weeks on their projects.

Sean Harris, a seventh-grader, stands behind his display of the earth's evolution, past, present and future. The model, which spans hundreds of millions of years, took Sean several hours to complete.

An erupting volcano, a salt water aquarium, a display of Saturn and its moons and illustrations mapping out the progression of the earth's land formations were all part of the seventh-grade display.

Physical science is emphasized in the eighth grade. "Students volunteered to demonstrate principles that are studied in class throughout the year," said James Whyte, eighth-grade science teacher.

Experiments relating to conduction, static electricity, centrifugal force, the inverse square law and air pressure were responsible for the hustle and bustle in the eighth-grade room.

Moving on to the ninth grade leads to two classes, biology and introductory chemistry. Experiments in these areas tend to be eye-openers.

Dissection is an integral part of the biology class. A dissected earthworm, frog and fetal pig were all displayed.

"It's things they (students) would do throughout the year," said Bennie Ebersole, biology teacher.

Ebersole says the students study classification. "They start with bacteria and they work their way up to the mammals," she said. They study the systems and compare the different organisms, according to Ebersole.

Chemistry experiments were responsible for the remaining ninth-grade experiments.

Four types of reactions—analysis, synthesis, single replacement and double replacement—are studied in class, said chemistry teacher Frank McCarthy. "In the lab, the kids are confirming experimentally about the reactions they've learned from the book," he said.

Students volunteered to demonstrate the experimental phase of the reactions. Electrolysis of water and the breaking down of a compound into simpler substances were a few of the demonstrations.

For an hour and a half, students were able to relay their knowledge to observers. They explained scientific facts and showed that science really does work.

Ninth-graders Adam Ruma, Will Lowry and Jeff Foley create the same effect of a booster rocket on a space shuttle by burning purified oxygen with wood fuel.

Nicole Quinlen and Kasie Kearins prove refraction occurs in water with the use of a penny, a tank of water and a long stick. The girls are both eighth-graders at West Junior High.

Tim Krabec is happy that his hydrolic pressured volcano worked as well as he planned. Tim is a seventh-grader at West Junior High.

OPINION

Public Spirit

There were probably 101 different reasons on each side, each one attempting to make a cogent point about why—or why not—Article 101, an otherwise unassuming-sounding zoning by-law, should be passed. And so it came down to the Town Meeting, where just the turnout was sizeable enough to indicate that this was no ordinary zoning hearing. Article 101 is, as everyone in town knows by now, the so-called Abbot Academy conversion proposal. Approved narrowly at that Town Meeting, Article 101 represents the requisite first step—the carrot, if you will—in Phillips Academy's methodical plan to renovate Abbot Academy via the establishment of 55 apartment units as part of the project.

The initial approval, however, does not mean the venture will steamroll its way to quick completion—nor should it. One might express cynicism over the fact that it took a property issue to galvanize townspeople and create factions, but the entire renovation process will no doubt bear the positive imprint of the spirited public forum. That this debate will continue is expected, and indeed, welcome, for most of those arguing in favor or against Article 101 seem to truly believe their convictions are in the town's best interest. And with that many people claiming to act in the public interest, we can rest assured that participatory democracy is alive and well in Andover.

Public-spirited gestures aside, however, the Abbot project is still in its nascent stages, so it bears monitoring from all sides. Rather than sulk over the failure to block the passage of Article 101, opponents of the Phillips plan can put their dissent to much more constructive use by addressing their concerns in terms of the progression of the renovation. For example, they should hold Phillips officials the frequently uttered "trust us" phrases and ensure that the project that emerges—particularly the apartment complex—is really worthy of our trust. Even supporters of the plan have a duty to ensure that the concerns of the opponents are addressed adequately.

Nevertheless, the academy is hardly at a "where do we go from here?" crossroads, having presented a thorough and well thought-out plan that won over skeptics in the first place. The soundness of the Abbot proposal—and not the emotional pleas of its sponsors—is what merited the passage of Article 101. It would be to the town's great advantage if the renovation proceeds with similar substance, lest the conflicting emotions plunge the project into a sea of rhetoric.

DOWN THE YEARS

100 Years Ago — April 1888

Disturbances are not very common in Abbott village but the peaceful inhabitants were rather suddenly awakened early Sunday morning by shrieks and shouts. While returning from a party a young man was suddenly attacked by a young man evidently intoxicated. Three other fellows sprang out and would have killed him but for the arrival on the scene of several of the inhabitants. Chief Cheever was notified and secured warrants for their arrests.

The Selectmen are having their room at the Town Hall re-floored. Cole and Hardy are doing the work. A pier has been built in the cellar, under the place where the new safe is to stand.

The Steamer Company were out for practice Tuesday night, and the new horses were used for the first time, behaving in a satisfactory manner.

A football match between the Lawrence Club and the Boston Rovers was played Fast day on the Lawrence Cricket grounds: Lawrence 7, Rovers 1. On Saturday on the same grounds, the Lawrence Club and the Lowells: Lawrence 7, Lowell 1.

Opposition is the life of trade. We are to have two companies to try their level best to keep Frye Village cool during the coming summer with ice. The Messrs. Adams & Daw of Lawrence and B. F. Holt of Andover.

75 Years Ago — April 1913

Burke's tailor shop in the Carter block was broken into on Wednesday night, the parties effecting an entrance through one of the rear windows, apparently using a tool similar to the one employed in the other recent robberies.

The annual baseball game between the Punchard School team and the Alumni nine will be played on Patriots' Day on the playstead. The game will be called at 10 o'clock.

Daniel F. Harrington, the local milkman, has returned home from the Lawrence General hospital where he has been confined for some time.

During house-cleaning time Andover housewives are asked to bear in mind the coming rummage sale at the Andover Guild. Not only clothing but any saleable articles will be gladly received by the ladies in charge of the sale.

J.P. Wylie & Company wish to announce that they have not purchased the stock of Mike Francis, the shoemaker, as has been rumored.

Miss Charlotte Bushfield of High street was taken to Miss Barr's Sanitarium, Methuen, on Wednesday, seriously ill with a threatened attack of typhoid fever.

50 Years Ago — April 1938

Andover's truck rerouting problem was much nearer an amicable solution on Tuesday night after a conference among truck-owners, selectmen and the highway safety committee at the town house. Transportation companies all agreed to send their non-local trucks over the by-pass rather than through the town, this to be done when the bridge over the Shawshen on the Den Rock road is completed.

Thirty-five members of the Young Republicans club were present at a meeting at which plans were made for a banquet to be held.

W. Gordon Coutts of Elm street was yesterday appointed a permanent fireman by Chief Charles F. Emerson, taking the place of William Rea, retired.

The Senate has confirmed the Presidential appointment of John H. McDonald as postmaster of Andover for another term. Mr. McDonald, postmaster from 1914 until 1923, was appointed again in 1933.

Dr. William Dacre Walker, the town's leading physician, passed away at the Phillips house of the Massachusetts General hospital in Boston.

Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, "The Mikado" is to be presented in the Free church parish house.

The petition which was put into circulation last week asking for a special town meeting to reconsider the two Elm street articles was filed this week with the selectmen and the town clerk George H. Winslow has certified the necessary amount of signatures.

25 Years Ago — April 1963

Richard Cardinal Cushing dedicated St. Robert Bellarmine church on Haggett's Pond road, Sunday, and administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of 33 children.

Gail McCoy of Sunset Rock road celebrated her birthday by competing in the Palm Sunday horse show at the Andover riding academy.

The 25th anniversary sale of the Andover Cooperative is offering block-cut chuck roast beef for 49 cents a pound and chuck steak at 59 cents. Ham faces were offered at 49 cents a pound.

A proposal to charge a parking fee of $1 per year for Poms pond gets a rather cool reception from the selectmen.

Knights of Columbus quarters on Post Office avenue destroyed by early morning fire.

Selectmen order a rigid inspection of all buildings along Post Office avenue in an effort to prevent any hazardous conditions to exist.

State Senator Philip A. Graham addresses members of the Young Republican club at a dinner at the Log Cabin.

Parents of first graders at the Henry C. Sanborn School may ask the School Committee for a special meeting, to reconsider splitting the two classes into three.

10 Years Ago — April 1978

Andover's poorest town election turnout in years produced two selectmen Monday, with James Abramson the successful candidate for the three-year term - only contest on the ballot. Abramson, Andover businessman and president of the Andover Chamber of Commerce, was the winner in the four-way race for the three-year term on the board polling 41 more votes than Philip J. Salamone, who had been serving as selectmen since his appointment last May.

Ten years ago his classmates voted Jay Leno "class comedian." This year, Jay, a top nightclub performer, and frequent television guest, will be the graduation speaker for commencement exercises scheduled for June 7 at the Eugene B. Lovely field.

Aquisition of the Turner Farm property by the town received some support from the selectmen Monday night as they voted to endorse the proposal with the provision that 50 percent of the funding come from an outside source.

THE PUBLIC FORUM

Good Work

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

On behalf of Phillips Academy community, I would like to extend to the town of Andover deepest thanks for the opportunity to resolve the future of the Abbot Academy campus.

The conversation over the past several weeks among the many parties involved in the future of the Abbot buildings has been lively. We would like to thank all of those who expressed their concerns and their interests in formulating the final proposal. We spoke of stewardship at the Town Meeting. What we witnessed in the discussion of Article 101, regardless of the sides taken, was sincere discussion of the best ways to preserve our community. We look forward to continuing work together to assure that the preservation of the Abbot Academy buildings is in keeping with all our hopes for Andover's future.

From this particular debate, a clear direction has emerged for the future of the Abbot property. Goodwill and interdependence between town and academy has distinguished Andover historically. We look forward to continuing that tradition long into the future through our work together.

Donald W. McNemar
Headmaster
Phillips Academy

No Exit

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

I have been an Andover resident for nearly 20 years and have built two homes in West Andover for my family. I want to express my consternation in regards to the non-utility of the Route 93 over-bridge on Chandler Road. Needless to mention the inconvenience of the detours in place, but a merit-worthy reflection would be to examine the dilemma (foreseeable) that may occur if a fire or health emergency presents to the Andover West residents depending upon the bridge access route.

I originally built my homes in the west section because of the proximity to the fire station and reasonable choices to reach highways and secondary roads. Not diminimus in my Andover West selection

Course

The Greater Lawrence Chapter of the American Red Cross will sponsor a first responder course every Tuesday and Thursday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. April 26-May 26 at the chapter's headquarters, 430 North Canal St., Lawrence.

This course will be of particular interest to lifeguards and special interest groups responsible for giving emergency care.

was the school system's elementary and secondary nexus to the home sites. Imperative in the investment was the Chandler Road bridge and loss of such creates burdens for not only bridge abutments but the whole town, either directly or indirectly.

Cement barriers are in place on the bridge preventing reasonable and seasonable utility in case of fire and/or health emergency. Murphy's Law and predictable human error statistics would surface at inopportune times to add onus to caretaking efforts when exigent circumstances arise.

Insurers of risk will be assessing the fiscal exposure of the west area from property value through fire and health protection needs. Any insurance increase may burden all Andover residents and, not uniquely, the west citizens. Fiscally comprised are the taxpayers that may have to meet the increased costs and concerns for busing the children in alternative pathways along with associated problems of traffic and roadway monitoring and repair expenses.

I trust that our legislative representatives shall address and promptly redress this issue in good faith and exhibit diligence versus dalliance. West Andover rumors have developed indicating a two-year correction time; this must not be the case for this resolve.

John A. Beal
West Andover

Speaker

Jonathan Kozol, author of Rachel and Her Children: Homeless Families in America, will speak in the Bentley Library Conference Center on Northern Essex Community College's Haverhill campus Monday, May 2, at 7:30 p.m. on "American Priorities: the Hungry, the Homeless, the Illiterate."

Rachel and Her Children is a narrative portrayal of the day-to-day life struggle of the homeless in America. He wrote the book after extensive interviews with the homeless families who live in a shelter in New York City, located one block away from the exclusive shops of Fifth Avenue.

Courses Offered In Lawrence

Northern Essex Community College will offer special interest courses at Central Catholic High School.

Of general interest are Sing Out, a chorus for non-singers, on Tuesdays, April 5 through May 17, with a presentation Saturday, May 21; Calligraphy for Beginners on Thursdays, April 7 through May 26.

Baseball Leagues To Hold Tryouts

The Andover Blue and Gold Pony League baseball teams will hold their annual spring tryouts Saturday, April 30, and Sunday, May 1, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Andover High School varsity and junior varsity fields.

All youngsters between the ages of 13 and 15 are eligible. No candidate may turn 16 years of age before August 1. All positions are open, with returning players required to earn their way back on their respective team.

All 13-year-old players should report to the high school at 1 p.m. both days and be prepared to work out until approximately 3 p.m. All 14- and 15-year-old players should report at 3 p.m. and be prepared to work out until approximately 5 p.m.

The Andover Blue and Gold squads compete in the two-division Greater Reading Pony League against teams from Stoneham, Wilmington, North Reading, Lynnfield and Reading.

The league season usually begins in mid-June and runs through mid-August. Players should be ready to make a commitment for that time period.

Both teams have been very successful in their first three years of association with the league.

Blue is the defending league co-champion, having tied Lynnfield for the overall league title last summer, and placed first in its division during the regular season three straight years.

Gold won the Greater Reading Pony League championship in 1985 and 1986. Last summer AG won its division title during the regular season for the third consecutive year, but lost a one-game semifinal playoff to Lynnfield to snap a string of four straight league titles (two in the Greater Lawrence Babe Ruth League, 1983 and 1984). Gold had won five league championships in six years before Lynnfield snapped the ring of successes.

Blue and Gold will play league schedules of 14 to 18 games and may also play several non-league and/or pre-season games. If either or both finishes first or second in the division, they will qualify for the playoffs.

There is also the possibility of some post-season tournament play around the state in August, although a final decision will not be made until the season begins.

Any player not making either Pony league team will have the opportunity to tryout for the Andover Senior League and 13-year-old players who are picked for the Blue or Gold may also play in the Senior League, if they so desire.

All candidates are reminded to wear baseball shoes and bring a glove to tryouts. If a third tryout is deemed necessary, it will be held the following Saturday, May 7. That day will also be reserved in case of a rainout.

Any youngster unable to attend at least one of the scheduled tryouts should contact one of the team coaches.

Joe Iarrobino and Red Harris will coach the Blue team; Rick Harrison and Dan Grams will coach the Gold.

Anyone wishing further information may contact any of the coaches or Andover Youth Baseball Association official Dick Allard.

Gymnast Win State Competition

Andover gymnasts helped the Andover-North Andover YMCA girls' gymnastic teams win Class III and II state championship this past weekend at Malden High School. The Class IIIs competing in compulsory team event won the meet by two points over a field of six teams from across the state. Tania Pierce placed first in vaulting, third on floor, first on beam and was state champion in the all around with a 34 in the 12-14 age group.

Alyssa Farris placed second on beam and sixth all around. Sarah Faraci placed first on floor and fourth all around. Kerry Brady placed second on beam, second on bars and second in the all around in the 9-11 age group. Marlene Ratto placed third on beam.

Nicole Belle Isle placed first in every event and was state champion in the all around with a 33.5 in the 15 and over age group.

PA Readies For Legion Tryouts

Registration and tryouts for the 1988 edition of the Andover Post 8 American Legion baseball team will be held at Phillips Academy's varsity field Saturday, May 14 and 21, at 6 p.m. and Sunday, May 15 and 22, at 4 p.m.

American Legion baseball is scouted by colleges and professional baseball representatives. Many former Andover Legion players are members of college squads.

All positions are open prior to yearly tryouts. Candidates who cannot, for legitimate reasons, attend scheduled tryouts or require additional information should contact manager Al Pelletier of 345 Salem St.

The regular 24-game season starts June 10 and ends by July 27. District/state playoffs start July 29 for teams who qualify. Games are played on weekday nights and late afternoon on weekends.

The 1988 squad will consist of 18 players from Andover only. All Andover residents meeting the age requirements are eligible regardless of high school affiliation, public or private, and playing status on the school team.

All candidates must be a minimum of 16 years old and cannot have attained their 19th birthday before August 1. It is not uncommon, however, for talented 16-year-olds to gain starting berths on the team.

Any player selected but not gaining a starting berth on the team will be recruited for the Andover Northeast team on a non-interference basis with legion games.

Each zone champion will enter the district playoffs.

Under 12 Division

Rowdies 3 - Beverly 1

After a scoreless first half, the Rowdies pressured a strong Beverly goalie into giving up two goals: one by Anthony Correnti from Eddie Jurdi and one by Dan Hansberry from Scott Zink. Beverly answered with a tally, but Danny Queen headed in the final goal when Matt Binda's shot rebounded off the cross bar. BOW: Peter Gigliotti, Rocky Tradd and Andrew MacNeil.

Lynnfield 3 - Rowdies 1

Although both teams were evenly matched, the Rowdies' single goal, scored by Scott Zink on Danny Queen's assist was not enough to take the game. BOW: Bobby Demers, Rob Lewis and Dan Hansberry.

Danvers 3 - Mighty Dragons 2

Andover dominated the first half with Amy Benedict scoring unassisted, but Danvers returned in the second half with three consecutive goals. Mighty Dragon's roared back on Leah Henderson's tally, but could not deny the Danvers' victory. BOW: Melinda Fox and goalie Kim Smith.

Saugus 2 - Mighty Dragons 1

Saugus forced the Mighty Dragons to play defensively as they took a 2-0 lead in the first period, but Jennifer Pardo's successful penalty kick prevented a shutout in this tournament match. BOW: Erin Gammon and Rachel Buonopane.

Under 14 Division

Terminators 2 - Danvers 2

Both teams are scoreless until the second half when Andover's John Shea booted in Gus Quattlebaum's pass. Danvers tied, but Quattlebaum connected on a corner kick by Brian Jones. Danvers then responded with the equalizer. BOW: Tim Maracle, Kevin Foltz, Todd Green and goalie Andy Novelline.

Terminators 6 - Beverly 0

BOW: Mark Baker, Keith Selvitelli, John Shea, John-Christopher Martin and Kevin Foltz.

Beverly 1 - Destroyers 0

Because both teams were so evenly matched, neither team could score. The match was 0-0 until the last minute when Beverly won. BOW: Eric Fox and Mike D'Agostino, goalkeeper.

Saugus 7 - Avengers 1

Saugus took advantage of the fact that Andover was playing shorthanded. The Avengers did a good job containing Saugus in the second half and Jeff Parker's

Gillette

The battle for control of the corporation has extended to the courts as well.

Last week, opening arguments were heard in a Boston federal court over a lawsuit filed by Gillette against Coniston Partners.

Gillette is accusing Coniston of not declaring financial support from proxy holders to help in the campaign to force a sale.

Securities laws require that donations from proxies are reported.

Attorneys for Coniston argued that a mistake was made, but an amended report was filed April 11.

The problems with the original report stemmed from the status of a partnership group in the Bahamas.

Gillette hopes to have the results of a possible unfavorable vote blocked by Judge Rya Zobel.

Although today's meeting won't be affected, Gillette hopes to slap an injunction before the tally can be certified this month.

The educators, 15 principals of secondary schools in Thailand and the deputy director general of the department of general education in Thailand, arrived in the Andovers Saturday, March 26.

The AFS chapters arranged for the group to tour schools in Andover, North Andover, Lynnfield and Wakefield to present an overview of all types of secondary school education in the area. Highlights included visits to the Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute, Phillips Academy and the Northeast Metropolitan Regional Vocational High School. The Thais found their visit to Lawrence High School rewarding.

The foreign educators also had the opportunity to meet and talk with students from Boston University and Merrimack College. Having met with the North Andover

A trip was arranged to the Massachusetts State House where the Thais met with Dr. Harold Raynolds, Jr., commissioner of education, and state representatives Susan Tucker of Andover and Joseph Hermann of North Andover.

The educators stayed with host families in Andover and North Andover. Deputy Director General Kamol Dhisobha said, "We have learned the American way of life and of family life. We are learning so much with our host families. AFS is really the best program for bringing different people together so they can learn from each other."

McGrail also announced that the ASK Community Team will hold a Video Star Night at Andover High School. Grades seven, eight and nine will be invited. The evening will include a video jockey and use of gym facilities for volleyball, etc. and concession stands will be set up.

Orientation for parents of new Doherty students was announced. Orientation for parents of sixth-graders will be Wednesday, June 8, and for parents of fifth-graders, Thursday, May 12.

Blain gave an overview of the recent "Take Charge" program presented at Doherty. Bill Meehan, executive director of Take Charge, delivered a stirring message on the dangers of drugs and alcohol. In addition to conducting an all-school assembly, he supervised a workshop of refusal skills, visited classes and met with teachers in a special forum. Student reaction to the program was extremely positive.

The committee set up a nominating committee, composed of Eileen Novel-line, Ciccone and Blank, to make recommendations for next year's slate of officers.

Featuring the extravagant sets and costumes of Nicholas Georgiadis, Don Quixote is a full-length ballet in three acts based on Miguel de Cervantes masterpiece.

The story focuses on the exploits of the gallant Basilio during his courtship of the beautiful Kitri. A commedia dell'arte version of ballet, with the main characters playing off one another in a vigorous and comical manner, Don Quixote was originally staged for the Australian Ballet by Nureyev in 1970 and premiered in Boston in 1982.

ducted at the school. The project is designed to encourage safe bike riding behavior among children and to raise money to fight childhood cancer.

"Bicycle accidents are a major problem with American children," said Helen Keegan, director of the nursery school. "According to the National Safety Council, there are an estimated 1,000 fatal accidents and 500,000 injuries each year involving bicycles. Bring-A-Bike Day aims at making children aware of bike safety at an early age, which we hope will save our children from harm."

Parents of children at St. Robert's will be seeking pledges for St. Jude Hospital, the leading center for the study of childhood cancer which, next to accidents, is the leading killer for children.

Madison Hill Upholsterers: Experienced Craftsmen at Work

The beautiful chaise pictured above wasn't always a piece of furniture you'd be proud to display in your living room. You might not have even displayed it in your cellar. Bought at a yard sale, the chaise was stark looking with an unappealing mustard color. After a trip to Madison Hill Upholsterers, the chaise has been transformed. They covered it with a soft Terra velvet, modified the styling and made button rosettes on the arm, put a Chicago ruffle to trim the back, and added a ruffle skirt.

In the background of the picture you may be able to see a Victorian sofa, 4 generations old, being restored. The crew at Madison Hill Upholsterers is also working on a Mr. and Mrs. Victorian chair set to match the sofa.

At Madison Hill they do everything from the very ordinary to the very extraordinary. Owner John Camasso is presently working on a custom stool which he is building from the ground up. The stool will be covered by an Oriental rug provided by the customer. The rug will be upholstered onto the frame, trimmed, and according to John will look like "something out of the Arabian Nights. It will be unique, one of a kind."

John has dealt not only with different generations of furniture, but with different generations of customers. In some families he's made or upholstered furniture for the grandmother, the mother, and now the grandchildren. He takes pride in the fact that 90% of his customers are either repeat business or referrals. "We have loyal customers," he says, "they stay with us."

The crew at Madison Hill has a wealth of experience. John has been in the business for over 40 years, Alex started during the Depression while Joe is the new kid on the block with 30 years experience.

Call these seasoned veterans at 686-7264. They'll arrange for a decorator to visit your house and assist you with a choice of fabric, and they'll pick up and deliver. The shop is open Mon-Th 9-5, Fri 9-3:30. Elaine Long

Amore Hearing Consultants: Dealing In Everyday Miracles

It is tiny - a flesh colored plug no bigger than a toothpaste tube cap, but it can change the quality of a person's life.

"This is the 'canal' hearing aid," says Theresa Manzi Amore, certified Hearing Aid Audiologist and owner of Amore Hearing Consultants of Lawrence. The device is all but lost in her palm. "It fits into the ear canal and is virtually undetectable. The President wears one in each ear."

Mrs. Amore deals with small everyday miracles like the canal aid and the slightly larger "all in the ear" model, completely contained in the ear. In her 30 years in the field she has witnessed a revolution, both in hearing aid technology and in the public's attitude toward hearing loss. "When I started out it was considered a catastrophe," she says. People are now better educated about hearing loss.

In 1955 when Mrs. Amore began her work, the standard hearing aid was a cumbersome affair connected to a body-carried battery pack. Now, 6 out of 10 patients wear the "all in the ear"; others wear canal aids, aids with behind the ear attachments, or eyeglass models. The proper aid for a person, Mrs. Amore feels, depends largely upon the degree and type of hearing loss.

Mrs. Amore works with all ages and welcomes Medicaid patients. To maintain her board certification and keep ahead in her field, she must take courses every year.

Although as a Hearing Aid Audiologist she tests hearing, prescribes, fits and repairs aids, Mrs. Amore emphasizes that her skills complement those of medical specialists, they do not replace them. She believes that patients who suspect hearing loss should see a competent specialist, and she will recommend one if necessary. "I would never put an aid on anyone who could be helped by surgery," she says.

Amore Hearing Consultants, 101 Amesbury St., Lawrence is open Mon., Tues., Thurs. & Fri. 9-5, Wed. & Sat. 9-12. Call 682-4730 for an appointment. Mrs. Amore also has an office in Haverhill at 3 Washington Sq. For an appointment in her Haverhill Office call 372-4851.

Marty Neistadt displays Mannington & Congeum floor samples

Creative Flooring, Inc.: Covering All The Possibilities

Creative flooring is exactly what you will find when you visit Creative Flooring, Inc., located at 281 Main St., North Reading.

Marty Neistadt, along with owners Janice and Tony Querci, are veterans of the flooring business. With their combined talents, there isn't a flooring problem that they can't handle.

For carpeting, they carry names such as Designer Gallery, Pineland and Philadelphia Carpets. A wide range of carpeting from indoor/outdoor, or the plush carpeting for your home, to the sturdiest commercial carpeting for your business. Carpet padding is a vital necessity and Creative Flooring carries a number of grades of heavy, fine quality padding. After having your carpeting installed, keep it clean with the Host Dry Carpet Cleaner, a cleaning system which can be rented from Creative Flooring.

Mannington, Armstrong, Congeum and Tarkett are well known names in flooring and you will find all three at Creative Flooring. Browse through the Mannington Design Center with an outstanding selection of "never wax" floors. Armstrong flooring ranges from the lower priced Castilian, to Crowne Corlon, to Designer Solarian, to the top of the line, Solarian Supreme.

Creative flooring also carries hardwood floor collections by Bruce, Harris-Tarkett and Hartco. Hartco hardwood floors come in a variety of colors and patterns. It is pre-finished flooring with solid oak moldings, that is ready to walk on and is suitable for either residential or commercial use.

Creative Flooring will come to your home for measuring, estimating cost and will install your flooring, if desired. Carpet remnants and short rolls are also stocked.

Open Mon. thru Sat. 9-5:30 except for Thurs. 9-8 p.m. or call Creative Flooring at 664-0006.

REAL ESTATE GUIDELINES

By Maureen Shiepe, G.R.I.
Realty U.S.A.
Schruender Real Estate

IS IT A BUYER'S OR SELLER'S MARKET?

If you're planning to sell your present home, market conditions will play a crucial role in determining the optimum asking price. These conditions change constantly from month to month and neighborhood to neighborhood, and it's important for you to get solid advice from a professional who is familiar with your specific market area.

A good agent knows not only how many houses similar to yours are selling, but what other factors may be involved. Nearby commercial development, for example, may create additional congestion and noise, but could also mean greater housing demands for people who will be working in the new office buildings. A new bus or subway route could make your home more valuable by cutting the commuting time to downtown. The business environment in your city has a strong impact on the real estate market. Real estate professionals will help you consider all of the issues and set a fair price for your home.

If there's a move in your future, the real estate professionals at Realty USA Schruender Real Estate are ready to serve you. Call us at 685-5000 or drop by our offices at 73 Chickering Road, North Andover.

THE LASTING AGREEMENT

In a home selling situation, the seller will normally select one real estate agency as the exclusive sales representative. The agreement with the agency will be in the form of a listing contract which spells out the conditions and provisions. These are binding on both parties: the seller and the agency.

One of the provisions in the listing agreement will deal with the term (how long the contract will be in force). If you sign for six months, other conditions withstanding, you normally will be bound to the agreement for this period. Be aware of the time period before you sign.

Six months may be a reasonable term for some special properties; a four month listing would be more typical. If you want to sign for two or three months, our agency can agree or not agree. Also, remember that we will incur out-of-pocket expenses for which they will usually only be compensated if a sale is completed. The aim of our office is to sell your house and we'll do it. That's what it's all about.

*****
If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Pynchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

AN AUGUST RULE

Under the new tax law, if a mortgage or home equity loan was already in place on August 16, 1986, interest on that borrowing continues to be fully deductible as an itemized deduction. If a loan is taken out on a first or second home after August 16, 1986, interest is deductible to the extent that the borrowing does not exceed the purchase price of the property, plus the cost of improvements. Mortgage interest on a used to pay education expenses or medical bills. However, the new law does not change the rule for deducting points. Although interest on a refinanced mortgage is deductible, even if the proceeds are used for something other than home improvements, points paid to obtain the loan must be written off proportionately over the course of the loan.
